

OVHcloud SUMMIT 2026 INTERACTIVE GAME RULES

(T-Shirt Prize Draw)

Article 1: Presentation of the Game

The company OVHcloud, whose registered office is located at 2 RUE KELLERMANN, 59100 ROUBAIX, France, registered with the Trade and Companies Register under number 424761419 (hereinafter referred to as “OVHcloud”), is organising a free-entry instant-win interactive game entitled “OVHcloud Interactive Game” (hereinafter referred to as “the Game”).

OVHcloud is supported in the organisation of the Game by MCI Group France, a French simplified joint-stock company (SAS) with share capital of €520,000, registered with the Nanterre Trade and Companies Register under number 414 540 252, whose registered office is located at 25 Rue Anatole France, Levallois-Perret, France (hereinafter referred to as “MCI GROUP FRANCE” or the “Events Agency”).

The Game runs from 17 September to 19 November 2026, as part of the AI SUMMIT 2026 event (hereinafter “the Event”), and will be introduced to participants via the Event registration form.

These rules (hereinafter the “Rules”) set out the legal terms applicable to this Game.

Article 2: Conditions of Participation

Participation in the Game is free of charge and open to any natural person aged at least 18 on the date of their participation in the Game, residing in mainland France, with the exclusion of OVHcloud employees and any person involved in the organisation of the Game.

The participant authorises any verification concerning their identity.

It is expressly noted that participation in the Game is not subject to any purchase obligation.

Participation in the Game implies, for every participant, full and unreserved acceptance of these Rules. These Rules take precedence over all documents relating to the Game (in particular promotional materials). Failure to comply with these Rules will result in automatic cancellation of the participation and of any prize that may have been awarded.

Article 3: Terms of Participation

To take part in the Game, participants must simply:

- Register for the Event via the registration form available at: <https://summit.ovhcloud.com/en-gb/> and tick the box “I wish to take part in the ‘Summit 2026’ prize game and I have read and accept the rules of the said prize game.”
- Attend the Event on the date it takes place.

No other means of participation will be accepted. Any incomplete participation, or any participation that does not comply with these Rules, cannot be taken into account and cannot give rise to any claim.

In all cases, in order to validly take part in the Game, participants must strictly comply with the registration conditions as defined in these Rules, as well as any other instructions communicated to them by any other means.

Only entries correctly made and validated each day during the term of the Game will be taken into consideration.

Article 4: Prizes and Award of Prizes

The overall prize pool of the Game is allocated as follows:

- 1,000 prizes, described as 1,000 collector's T-shirts produced for the AI Summit 2026, with a unit value of ten (10) euros. The value indicated for the prize(s) corresponds to the estimated retail price (inclusive of tax) at the time these Rules were drafted; it is given for information purposes only and may vary. Prizes are not interchangeable for another item, nor for any monetary value, and cannot give rise to any partial or full refund. Participants are informed that the sale or exchange of prizes is strictly prohibited.

In the event of force majeure, or should circumstances so require, the Organiser reserves the right to replace prizes won with prizes of equivalent or greater value.

Article 5: Selection of Winners

The Game will designate the first 1,000 people registered for the Event as winners.

Every winner must comply with these Rules. Should it appear that a winner does not meet the criteria set out in these Rules, their prize will not be awarded to them.

OVHcloud reserves the right to communicate winners' contact details to any partner responsible for shipping or delivering the prizes they have won.

Article 6: Exchange of Prizes

Under no circumstances may the prizes offered be exchanged for their cash equivalent, or for another prize at the winners' request, nor may they be transferred to a third party.

However, OVHcloud reserves the right to replace the announced prize with an equivalent prize if external circumstances require it to do so, without its liability being engaged in any way whatsoever.

OVHcloud also reserves the right to shorten, extend, modify or cancel the Game should circumstances so require.

Article 7: Limitation of Liability

OVHcloud cannot be held liable for any event not attributable to it, in particular in the event of any incident/accident that may occur in connection with the use of the prizes, technical failure, risks inherent to any connection and transmission, the absence of protection of certain data against possible misuse, and the risk of contamination by any viruses circulating on the network, and in any other case.

Article 8: Personal Data

Capitalised terms used in this article that are not otherwise defined in these Rules shall have the meaning given to them in Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (the “General Data Protection Regulation” or “GDPR”).

OVHcloud informs participants that it will collect and process their personal data (hereinafter, the “Personal Data”), as data controller, for the following purposes:

- Administrative management, including recording participants' entries;
- Implementation and monitoring of these Rules, including determining prize winners and delivering prizes;
- Handling of disputes and disagreements relating to these Rules, as well as the enforcement of decisions and judgments.

The processing of Personal Data carried out by OVHcloud is based on the performance of a contract (in this case, the Game Rules) to which the Participant is a party, or on the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken at the Participant's request. The Personal Data relating to participants collected by OVHcloud are as follows:

- First and last name;
- Email address

The Personal Data relating to winners collected by OVHcloud are as follows:

- First and last name;
- Email address

By registering for the Game, participants are informed and accept that, should they be one of the grand prize winners (see data relating to winners above), the Personal Data they must provide for the organisation of the delivery of their prize will be requested from them by MCI GROUP FRANCE or OVHcloud via email.

Participants are informed that providing all of the aforementioned Personal Data is mandatory in order to take part in the Game.

OVHcloud discloses participants' Personal Data, where applicable, to its data processors within the meaning of the GDPR, as well as to the following recipients:

- For administrative management: MCI GROUP FRANCE, responsible for managing the relationship with the participant;
- For the collection of Personal Data: the company Appcraft

OVHcloud implements appropriate technical and organisational measures, including physical, hardware and software measures, to preserve the security, integrity and confidentiality of participants' Personal Data, and to protect it against any unauthorised access, use, misappropriation, modification, disclosure or destruction.

OVHcloud will retain participants' Personal Data for a period of ninety (90) days from Saturday, 20 June 2026.

Participants' Personal Data is processed within the European Union.

Participants may exercise their right of access, their right to rectification and erasure, their right to restriction of processing, their right to data portability, and their right to withdraw consent to the processing of their Personal Data (where processing is based on consent – which would be the case for use of their Personal Data for commercial prospecting purposes), as well as their right to object, by contacting OVHcloud by post at the following address:

Data Protection Officer

OVH SAS

2 Rue Kellermann

59100 Roubaix

or by email at dpo@ovh.com, or by completing the form provided for this purpose on OVHcloud's website (available here).

To process a request, participants may be asked to provide a photocopy of an identity document bearing their signature.

Participants may lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (such as the CNIL) if they consider that OVHcloud's processing of their Personal Data infringes personal data regulations.

Article 9: Right to One's Image

As part of the event, OVHcloud and the Events Agency (or any subcontracting company) may take photographs and video recordings in which participants and winners may appear.

By taking part in the Game, each participant grants OVHcloud, free of charge, authorisation to fix, reproduce, represent and disseminate their image, voice and, where applicable, their first and last name, captured during the event, for the purposes of OVHcloud's internal and external, promotional and commercial communication, on any medium known or unknown to date, including: OVHcloud's websites and intranet, social networks (in particular LinkedIn, Instagram, X, YouTube), printed materials, newsletters and institutional presentations.

This authorisation is granted worldwide and for a period of two (2) years from the date of capture.

It does not entail any transfer of the participant's rights for purposes unrelated to OVHcloud's communication; in particular, the participant's image may not be used in a context liable to harm their dignity or to disparage them, nor may it be associated with third-party products or services without their consent.

Photographs and recordings constitute personal data processed in accordance with the Personal Data article of these Rules. Each participant may, at any time, withdraw their consent and exercise their rights of access, rectification, erasure and objection by writing to dpo@ovh.com. Withdrawal of consent applies only for the future and does not affect the lawfulness of any prior dissemination.

Article 10: Intellectual Property

All trademarks, logos and other distinctive signs reproduced on the site, as well as on the sites accessible through hyperlinks from it, are the exclusive property of their respective owners and are protected as such under the provisions of the French Intellectual Property Code.

Any unauthorised reproduction of these trademarks, logos and signs constitutes an infringement punishable by criminal penalties.

All software used on the site, and on the sites accessible through it, as well as the text, commentary, illustrations or images reproduced on the site and on the sites accessible through it, are protected by copyright, and any unauthorised reproduction thereof constitutes an infringement punishable by criminal penalties.

Article 11: Force Majeure and Liability

OVHcloud's liability cannot be engaged if, as a result of force majeure or circumstances beyond its control, the Game must be cancelled, shortened, extended, or its conditions modified, in whole or in part. Participants may not claim any compensation in this respect.

OVHcloud also reserves the right to terminate a participant's involvement in the Game in the event of non-compliance with these Rules.

OVHcloud cannot be held liable in the event of a technical malfunction of the Game. Participants may not, therefore, claim any compensation in this respect.

OVHcloud accepts no liability in the event of a malfunction of the Internet network.

OVHcloud accepts no liability in the event of technical failure, or any hardware or software anomaly of any kind (virus, bug, etc.) affecting the participant's system, computer equipment, or the data stored on it. OVHcloud is in no way liable for any consequences this may have on the participant's personal, professional or business activity.

Any computer fraud, by whatever technical means, that distorts the proper conduct of the Game is prohibited. Violation of this rule will result in the immediate disqualification of its perpetrator from the Game.

OVHcloud may cancel all or part of the Game if it appears that fraud has occurred in any form whatsoever, in particular by computer-related means, in connection with participation in the operation or the determination of winners. Any misappropriation of an account by whatever technical means is likewise prohibited. Any misappropriation or attempted misappropriation of an account must be reported to OVHcloud by the participant holding the account, if they become aware of it.

In such cases, OVHcloud reserves the right not to award prizes to those committing fraud and/or to pursue the perpetrators of such fraud before the competent courts.

In the event of force majeure or circumstances beyond its control, OVHcloud reserves the right to replace a prize won with a prize of equivalent value and/or similar characteristics.

No telephone or written request concerning the list of winners will be answered.

Article 12: Verification of Participants' Data

OVHcloud reserves the right to verify the contact details of participants and winners prior to the delivery of their prize, with each winner required to provide proof of identity, age, and residency in mainland France. Such checks will be carried out in strict compliance with Article 9 of the French Civil Code. Any falsified, fraudulent, false, misleading, incorrect or inaccurate information will result in the participant's disqualification/cancellation and the non-award of the prize, as applicable. Any falsification of data will result in the participant's exclusion.

Article 13: Exceptional Circumstances

In the event of exceptional circumstances beyond its control, OVHcloud may, without incurring any liability or owing any compensation to participants, shorten, extend, postpone the entry period, or even modify the conditions of the Game or cancel this Game. Should such circumstances prevent delivery of a prize, the winner may not hold OVHcloud and/or the companies distributing the prize liable, nor claim its cash equivalent.

Article 14: Filing of the Rules

Participation in this Game implies full and unreserved acceptance of these complete Rules. Any interpretation of these Rules, including cases not provided for herein, shall be decided at OVHcloud's sole discretion.

These Rules are available on request from the Game organisers for the entire duration of the Game and may be obtained simply by writing to:

OVHcloud

2 RUE KELLERMANN

59100 ROUBAIX

Postage costs relating to a request for these Rules will be reimbursed (at the standard rate charged by La Poste for reduced-speed delivery, based on 20g) upon simple written request to the above address.

Only one (1) reimbursement will be made per household (same name, same address).

Article 15: Disputes

In the event of any dispute or claim for any reason whatsoever, requests must be sent in writing to OVHcloud within 10 (ten) days of participation.

Any dispute concerning the interpretation and/or cases not provided for in these Rules shall be settled by OVHcloud, whose decisions shall be final and without appeal. No dispute or claim will be considered after a period of one (1) month following the closing date of the Game.

Article 16: Governing Law

These Rules and the organisation of the Game are governed by French law.

Should any clause of these Rules be declared null and void, this shall in no way affect the validity of the Rules as a whole.

Any participant found to be in breach of one or more articles of these Rules will be barred from taking part in the Game, and will also forfeit any prize they may have won.

Done in Paris, on 17/09/2026.
